STORY

The Story So Far

The Professor invented a helmet that could boost the intelligence of any primate that put it on. Unfortunately the most popular monkey at Monkey Park, Specter, got his hands on the helmet and led his pipo monkeys into the past using the Professor's time machine. Specter's plan was to change the course of history so that monkeys would rule the world, but his evil scheme was stopped through the heroic efforts of Spike.

Some time later...

While on vacation, the Professor asked Jimmy to deliver monkey shorts to the monkeys in Monkey Park, but Jimmy mistakenly sent a Monkey Helmet along as well! So once again, Specter donned the helmet and set his eye on world domination. To correct his mistake, Jimmy set out on his own monkey-collecting adventure and put an end to Specter's evil plans.

The Story this Time

The Professor's former student, Aki, a fellow scientist, and Aunt to Kei and Yumi, had come to live with Kei and his twin sister, Yumi. Life was peaceful until the pipo monkeys started hijacking TV networks, broadcasting their crazy TV shows all over the world! Whoever watched these ridiculous shows would turn into a mindless couch potato! Only Specter could be behind this! He must have gotten hold of a Monkey Helmet again...

This time around Specter has joined forces with Dr. Tomoki who has sworn to take revenge on humanity. If someone doesn't stop the Specter TV broadcasts soon, Specter will finally succeed in his latest scheme to take over the world!

With the Professor, Spike and Jimmy turned into mindless couch potatoes, it's up to Kei and Yumi to take on Specter and his pipo monkeys in the latest and greatest Ape Escape!

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Kei

The hero of this game; his favorite classes are gym and lunch. He loves baseball and never takes off his uniform.

Yumi

Kei's (slightly) older sister and the heroine of this game; she is a pop star who has just gotten her big break. She is a great singer and has excellent athletic abilities!

Tip

Kei and Yumi are actually twins. Since they don't look or act anything alike, I guess they must be fraternal twins?

Aki

A fellow scientist and assistant to the Professor, she is Kei and Yumi's Aunt.

Natalie

A tomboy who helps Aki out after the Professor is turned into a mindless couch potato.

Professor Jimmy Spike

Although they played big roles previously, these three were subject to the Specter TV broadcasts and have been turned into mindless couch potatoes!

8

Tip

Almost no one has seen the Freaky Monkey Five together. Could it be that they don't get along?

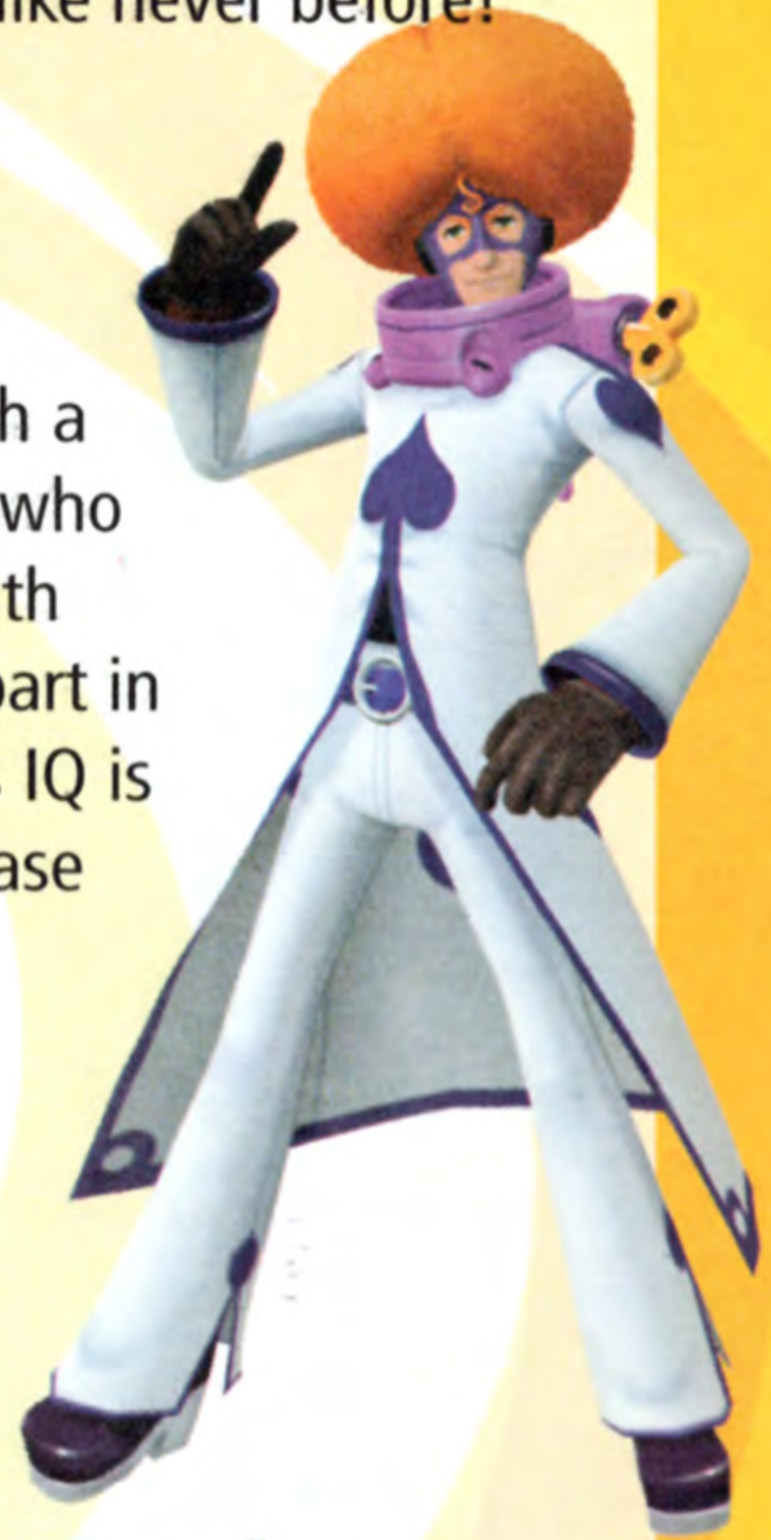

Specter

Relentless leader of the pipo monkeys and Freaky Monkey Five, he has once again gotten his hands on a Monkey Helmet and is planning on taking over the world like never before!

Dr. Tomoki

A mysterious scientist with a grudge against humanity who has formed an alliance with Specter to have his own part in taking over the world. His IQ is 1300 and his favorite phrase is "Perfect!"

Pipo Monkeys

Monkeys who have put on Monkey Helmets have slightly increased intelligence. Following Specter's orders, they're broadcasting their crazy TV programs all around the world.

Freaky Monkey Five

An elite group of monkeys with special powers; whose true strength cannot be estimated.

Tip

The Monkey Helmet worn by Specter is a special design of his own making. That's why it has no light on top of it.

MORPHING

As you progress through the game, you'll be able to transform into different outfits. Let's learn a little about how to transform and the types of outfits you can transform into.

How to Transform

1 Fill up the Morph Gauge

The Morph Gauge fills up gradually over time or when you find Morph Energy units. You can't transform until the gauge has been filled up all the way.

2 Transform with a Morph Jump

Press the R1 and R2 buttons simultaneously to do a Morph Jump. Highlight the outfit you want to transform into with the left analog stick, and then choose by pressing the X button.

Morph Jump

Select while holding the left analog stick

3 Watch out for the time limit

You can only remain morphed for a limited amount of time. Keep your eye on the Morph Timer near the Morph Gauge to see how much time is remaining.

Morph Energy

Find one of these to raise your Morph Gauge quicker. They begin to appear when you gain the ability to morph.

About Morph Stock

If you buy Morph Stock at the Monkey Mart, you'll be able to store up lots of Morph Energy and increase the number of times you can transform!

What's Different When You're Morphed?

Although you can't use Gotcha Gadgets while you're morphed, each outfit has a special action that can be performed with the right analog stick, as well as capture monkeys.

Special action!

SIMIAN CINEMA

The movie clips that you caught a glimpse of through the Pipo Cameras found throughout the game can be seen here. Watch movies that were recorded during a stage or make your own.

Simian Cinema Theater

Watch Simian Cinema movies that were captured via Pipo Cameras or ones that you made in the studio!

About Pipo Cameras

In each stage there are cameras that the monkeys use to film their shows. If you find one, take a look in it. If you can see a monkey in it, than you can film them.

Be careful not to capture monkeys the Pipo Cameras are focused on before filming their performances, otherwise you will miss the chance to unlock that movie. Not to worry, though, once you unlock Free Play, you will be able to go back and re-film any that you might have missed.

What about my movie data?

You can watch your movie data at the Simian Cinema in the Shopping Area!

Tip

When a monkey's helmet light is red, it means it's on alert so you can't record at that time. In that case you should play dead somewhere until the monkey relaxes, and then start recording.

22

ADVICE FROM AKI

In this section, Aki will give you some good advice for dealing with monkeys. It will help you when you're trying to capture monkeys or fight an enemy, so read it carefully.

Pipo Monkey Secrets

You can tell a pipo monkey's level of agitation by the color of the lamp on their heads.

Carefree

Perfectly calm and relaxed.

Cautious

Concerned about his surroundings.

Alerted

Alert to the presence of Kei or Yumi.

Monkeys that steal Gotcha Gadgets!

There are some monkeys who became extremely aggressive when enraged. When angry, they will attack and try to steal your Gotcha Gadget. Take care not to let your Gotcha Gadget get stolen! If those monkeys get their hands on your Monkey Net, you might be the one who winds up getting captured!

How to get your Gotcha Gadgets back

If one of your Gotcha Gadgets is stolen, don't panic, just attack with another gadget or morph gear. If you don't have another gadget to attack with, you'll have to rely on your trusty Spinning Air Attack. If you can hit them, they'll drop your Gotcha Gadget. Hurry and pick it up.

Tip

Each Morph has a powerful gotcha attack! If there's a monkey that's just too strong to catch with the Monkey Net, try using one of the special gotcha attacks from a morph!

PIPO MONKEY PERSONALITIES

You can actually tell a monkey's personality by the color of his shorts! Personalities range from aggressive to cowardly, so remember what each color means.

Yellow shorts

Standard pipo monkey. They're all over the place.

Red shorts

Monkey with strong fighting skills. Watch out for his thrust punch.

Black shorts

Although they've got machine guns, they're terrible shots.

Blue shorts

Extremely quick monkey. Unfortunately, they're also quick to run away.

Light blue shorts

Extremely cowardly. Hard to even find unless you look everywhere.

Green shorts

These guys are always checking their surroundings with their special goggles.

White shorts

They can't even see what's happening around them. Approach them quietly.

Tip

There are even some pipo monkeys who are big fans of Yumi's, the pop star, and have even joined the Yumi Fan Club. If they ever meet the real Yumi, they're certain to be love-struck.

MORE ADVICE FROM AKI

Start with a basic gotcha

The most basic Gotcha is the "Chasing Gotcha" where you single-mindedly pursue a monkey until you catch up with it. You'll be using this plenty. When you catch up to the monkey, use your Monkey Net. You can also use the "Jumping Gotcha" where you leap into the air before using your Monkey Net.

Try a "Sneaking Gotcha"

It's a little tricky, but to do this you need to quietly sneak up on a monkey without being detected. Get close by either crawling or playing dead and then strike quickly with your Monkey Net!

The ultimate move, "Rolling Gotcha"

First attack a monkey with a Monkey Gadget. Then when they start rolling, quickly switch to your Monkey Net and catch them! It's the same if you're transformed. If you can manage this one, your monkey catching will get a lot easier. Practice and try your best.

Tip

Morph Gear is weak against water, so you can't transform when you're in the water.
